B-272039 into focused factories and giving the inspection responsibility directly to each product manufacturing team. Material from suppliers typically represents from 60 to 85 percent of the Suppliers Become Part of final product cost at the companies we visited. Because of this, companies the Team focused on improving supplier quality so they could eventually reduce material defects and inspections. They began by reducing their number of suppliers. In addition, they created qualification and certification procedures that relied on periodic evaluations of supplier quality systems. Finally, they developed long-term relationships with valued suppliers, increasing communication and creating a partnership, when possible. These practices helped companies reduce suppliers defects by as much as 90 percent and inspections of incoming material by as much as 76 percent. Appendix III describes the results of our visits to specific companies that had implemented some of these supplier quality programs. Commercial companies significantly reduced the number of suppliers...

Reviews

Merely no words to explain. I really could comprehend everything out of this published e ebook. I found out this publication from my dad and i suggested this publication to learn.
