David Crumm Media, LLC, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 211 x 137 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . One Hundred Questions and Answers About Arab Americans is part of the Michigan State University School of Journalism series on cultural competence. This guide has sections culture, language, religions, social norms, politics, history, politics, families and food. The guide is intended for people in business, schools, places of worship, government, medicine, law enforcement, human resources and journalism-anywhere it is important to know more about communities. We intended this guide for individuals and for groups. Questions include: Who are Arab Americans? How many Arab Americans are there? How are they distributed by nationality? What are the population centers for Arab Americans? Do Arab Americans have a shared language? Do Arab Americans have a shared religion? How does conflict in the Middle East affect Arab Americans? To which places do Arab Americans trace their ancestry? Is Palestine a country? Isn't Iran an Arab country? Are there other cultural groups from the Arab region? Who are Chaldeans? Many recently immigrated Arab Americans also know French. Why is that? How is Arabic written? Are characters in Arabic different than those used in English? When did Arab people come to the United States? Why do Arabs first come to the United States? What race are Arab Americans? Are Arabs a minority group? Are Arab Americans more closely tied to their country of origin, or to America? Who are some well-known Arab Americans? How do Arab Americans fare economically? What is the role of the family in Arab culture? Do Arab Americans maintain ties with their home countries? What are gender roles like for Arab Americans? Are Arab-American households larger than other American households? What kind of relationship does...
