The lessons were planned with reference to the requirements of the different grades, no less than with due regard for the wide variation in the number and length of periods devoted to the work. At the same time the material was so arranged that the essentials of the course could be covered in two years - the minimum of time recommended by the Board of Supervisors. This purpose was accomplished by dividing the course into two parts, Series A and B, each containing material for one lesson a week for a year, and each card including a sufficient number of recipes illustrating the principles involved to admit variation to suit differing circumstances and conditions. Allowance was made for needful drill in preliminary work and for the care and storage of materials and utensils...
