Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Productive Orchardring: Modern Methods of Growing and Marketing Fruit Probably every teacher who studies along any one line for a series of years becomes convinced that he has learned things that would be of value to men in this line of work. The writer offers this excuse for writing the present book, and perhaps the further justification might be added that for-a number of years he has had charge of a relatively large orchard where he believes that he has sifted out his theories and discarded those that won t work. He hopes that this belief will be shared by any who may attempt to follow his directions, and that the book may prove a real help in solving some of the problems which every orchard owner, whether experienced or inexperienced, is certain to encounter. The writer also ventures to hope that the book may be helpful to instructors as a text for class use. He has attempted to cut out the non-essentials and to present the essentials in a.reasonably brief manner and yet with sufficient detail to be followed easily when one attempts to put them into practice. Fred C. Sears Massachusetts Agricultural College, Amherst, January 1, 1914. Editor s Note. This book is suited to the needs of College and Short Course Classes. Its practical nature as well as its philosophical treatment makes it a book to be desired by both fruit grower and student. High schools and special agricultural schools devoting some time to the particular study of horticulture will find in this book the themes for their most profitable consideration. The reader will be favorably impressed with the spirit of the writer...
