By Ewald Friedrich Hertzberg

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Historical Memoir of the Last Year of the Life of Frederick II, King of Prussia Notwithstanding his desperate situation, he did not remit for a moment his custom, to read all the dispatches of his foreign ministers, to dictate every morning, from four to seven, the answers that were to be sent immediately to those dispatches, and to keep up a regular correspondence with the ministers of his cabinet and those for foreign affairs, on all great political concerns. Thus did he continue, during those seven months of the year 1786, to labour in establishing his last grand System of the Germanic Union; at the same time he interposed, as efficaciously as circumstances would permit, in the disputes of Holland, and maintained the principles he had laid down, and the rights of his own state against the claims of the city of Dantzic. He kept up the same exact and daily correspondence with the ministers in the department of justice, and in that of finance; and directed himself, without any minister or general, the whole...
