Indepenpress Publishing Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Glimpses into the Other Side, Dennis Smith, David and Hazel Tate live in a leafy Surrey suburb. They are a middle class couple with a close circle of friends and Hazel attends the local church. David is a marketing manager with a pharmaceutical company whilst Hazel works part time at the local junior school as an administrative assistant. They feel they deserve a holiday and choose South America. Two weeks in Chile in January gets them away from an English winter. They fly to Santiago and soak up the local culture, food and wine, and much more. By chance they visit a nunnery on the edge of the Andes. Little did they know then what an impact that was going to have on them. They could not have predicted what was to follow - it was to be life changing. They reach emotional highs and lows and plunge the depths of despair. But they had faith. Without that they had nothing .
