Haiku or Identity Manifesting Haiku is a philosophical poetry book that utilizes the Americanized version of The traditional Japanese Haiku. It also contains essays and other forms of artistic expression, including a glossary, that expounds upon Identity Manifesting Theory. (I.M. Theory) We can choose the identity we wish to use in the moment we are in We can do this by staying aware and by living a life that includes developing a principled-centered core, and by maintaining a mindset of proactive thinking. Also by living the L.I.F.E. Principle (love is for everyone) and by accessing our conscientious consciousness, we can become who it is we are supposed to be. Writing haiku is a tool that the author used to center himself during a very turbulent time in his life s journey; so that he could base his decisions upon concepts greater than himself. I.M. Haiku is intended to be a prelude to future works of his expounding upon the Identity Manifesting Theory. This book also introduces the concept that we are our relationships, and that each and everyone of us has our own Inner-Verse. It is the unseen songs of our inner-verse that manifest to become our seen persona, the identity by which we interact with everything else that is connected within the Web of Existence. Know thyself, to free thyself, from thyself, in order to become thyself. It is the author s contention that we limit ourselves from becoming who we are supposed to be, by getting in our own way and that each and everyone of us has the ability to choose our own attitudes regardless of the situation we find ourselves...
