Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Letters of David An Expression of Gratitude to a firm but kind Doctor. Shore-Mountain, May 30. Dear old Doc: You gave me my choice between Heaven and this. Its taken me a week to forgive you them harsh words, but now I ask your forgiveness for all the back talk I hurled at your shining head. Heaven or this they must be synonymous! I didn t know before that the world had so much blue water and golden sand and waving trees and all those things the poets must have seen somewhere. I strolled up to the hotel today and took a seat on the veranda. I didn t notice by whom I was sitting, but I soon found out. A little voice at my elbow piped up: Been here long? Over a week, I replied, mechanically, and turned to see a silver-haired lady in a vivid, green dress bending over some embroidery. Pretty place, she remarked, giving me a fidgety glance out of one eye. Its heaven, I replied. Heaven is where God is, she answered. I beg your pardon for misplacing Him, I rejoined. But she hadnt convinced me. I quitted the porch and drifted down to the shore and lay there stretched out full length on the soft, warm sand. I saw the sun dip into the sea and gild the sky a reddish gold, streaked with black, slender clouds and the lingering light make a shimmering pathway across the waters from the skyline to my feet. As the sky grew dim and the light faded, I felt the tap of bad Little Despair at my lungs, better say. About the...
